

Industrial PRTD Probes

Series 260
Standard

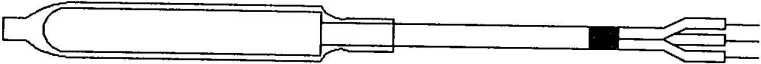

The industry standard probe configuration. A PRTD enclosed in a stainless steel protective sheath.

Series 260
Welded Fitting

A series 260 standard probe with an integral hex fitting welded to the stainless steel protective sheathing.

Series 260
Watertight

A series 260 standard probe with a unique Teflon outer jacket which produces a hermetic seal over the stainless steel protective sheath.

Series 260
Compression Fitting

A series 260 standard probe with a hex compression fitting installed on the stainless steel protective sheath.

Standard Specifications:

- Detector: 100 ohm or 1000 ohm PRTD +/- .12 @ 0 C European Alpha.
- Wire: Teflon Coated silver plated copper wire in various lengths and wire gauges.
- Sheath: Various lengths, diameters and bend patterns.

Custom RTD Probes:

Probes Unlimited is pleased to offer you the enclosed drawings of our standard products. We also do build to specification temperature probes and will quote your existing design or assist you with the design of a probe to satisfy your specifications.